- Restoration Services include water mitigation, fire and smoke damage cleanup, mold removal, trauma cleanup, and odor removal along with tile and grout cleaning, carpet cleaning, rug cleaning, and furniture and upholstery cleaning. Liz Rice states that "Mother Nature does not play favorites, so everyone runs the risk of being affected by a disaster at some point," which is why ServiceMaster by Rice has such a wide target market of clients. Customers range from homeowners to business owners. No matter the customer, ServiceMaster by Rice provides the best Disaster Restoration Services in the area.

- Founded by Austin Rice Sr., ServiceMaster by Rice has been helping victims of disaster since 1954. Currently, it is one of the largest ServiceMaster franchises in the nation with IICRC certified members travelling all over the country in response to hurricanes, floods, and tornado-ravaged areas. Despite the large size of the company, it is still owned by the Rice family today.

- ServiceMaster by Rice has been a member of the Clive Chamber of Commerce for a very long time. They decided to join the Clive Chamber because the Clive/Windsor Heights area is very important to the Rice family. Their home office resides in the Clive area and a few members of the Rice family grew up nearby. ServiceMaster by Rice loves being a part of the Chamber because its employees enjoy the different Chamber events and especially love meeting the different members of the Chamber.

- Liz Rice's favorite part of the ServiceMaster by Rice business is the fact that she gets to take part in "helping put people's lives back together after a disaster" and "giving them 'peace of mind.'" She hopes that when her customers "see [the] yellow trucks pull up, they can take a sigh of relief." ServiceMaster by Rice not only restores homes and businesses but also restores the lives of the people in communities all over the country. The nationally renowned yet family-owned company cares about the lives of each and every one of their customers, which has set ServiceMaster by Rice apart from other companies for 65 years of business.
